MEMORANDUM FOR: Legislative Counsel

FROM: John H. Waller
Inspector General

SUBJECT: Paragraph 26, OLC Memorandum of 4 April 1977 entitled "Follow-up Actions from Admiral
Turner's Senate Confirmation Hearings,
22 February 1977" (OLC 77-1257)

1. Reference recommends that the Inspector General and General Counsel be tasked to study the proposal in paragraph 26 that "the subject of a code of conduct for the Intelligence Community employees was a significant issues which could be looked into (p. 103)".

2. The General Counsel shares with me the opinion that the Director has shown tangible progress in meeting this commitment by naming Dr. Graham Allison of Harvard to prepare a code of ethics and conduct for the Intelligence Community. The General Counsel and I, of course, stand ready to assist Dr. Allison as he may desire and to play a role in this project.
